SAVE THESE DATES!

1. CHILDREN'S MINISTRY OUTING – WALK WITH ME 2010

Have you been to Ubin recently? Pulau Ubin is a 1020 hectare island and was once a cluster of smaller ones separated by tidal rivers, the island's old vegetation was cleared for rubber and crops such as coffee, pineapple, coconut, and jasmine. You can find old buildings dated back 40 years ago, such as coffee shops, restaurants, provision shops and fishing huts. When was the last time you've seen Kampongs and old Chinese town in Singapore?

Do join us for a fun-filled trip to Pulau Ubin where you will discover the thrill of bumboat ride and jungle walk. We will make your journey even more interesting with games, songs and maybe bicycle rides!

Date: 19 March 2010 (Friday, School Holiday)

Time: 7.45am-3.30pm

English Presbytery Easter Convention 2010

LIGHT, LOVE and LIFE in the cross

Synopsis: There is no better vantage point from which to view our lives than at the foot of the cross of Christ. The betrayal, trial and execution of our Lord throw light on the deep darkness of the human heart and at the same time reveal God's intense love for our world. On the cross, God struck a decisive blow against the power of sin and darkness and opened the way for people everywhere to find freedom, forgiveness and new life.
